GIB OPERATIONS

WITH GIB OPERATIONS, YOU HAVE ALL THE RELEVANT MATERIALS-PLANNING INFORMATION AT YOUR FINGERTIPS AT ALL TIMES.

PROCESSING THE ANTICIPATED DAILY OPERATIONS – SAVING TIME. GET THE BIG PICTURE.

GIB Operations is the solution for the daily work of every employee working along the supply chain. Thanks to custom user layouts and predefined standard layouts, all information relevant to scheduling and parts control can be accessed and displayed. This includes: missing parts, exceptions, material master data, requirements and consumption (graphs/tables), supplier and purchasing information, production and production order information, and document information such as orders and customer orders.

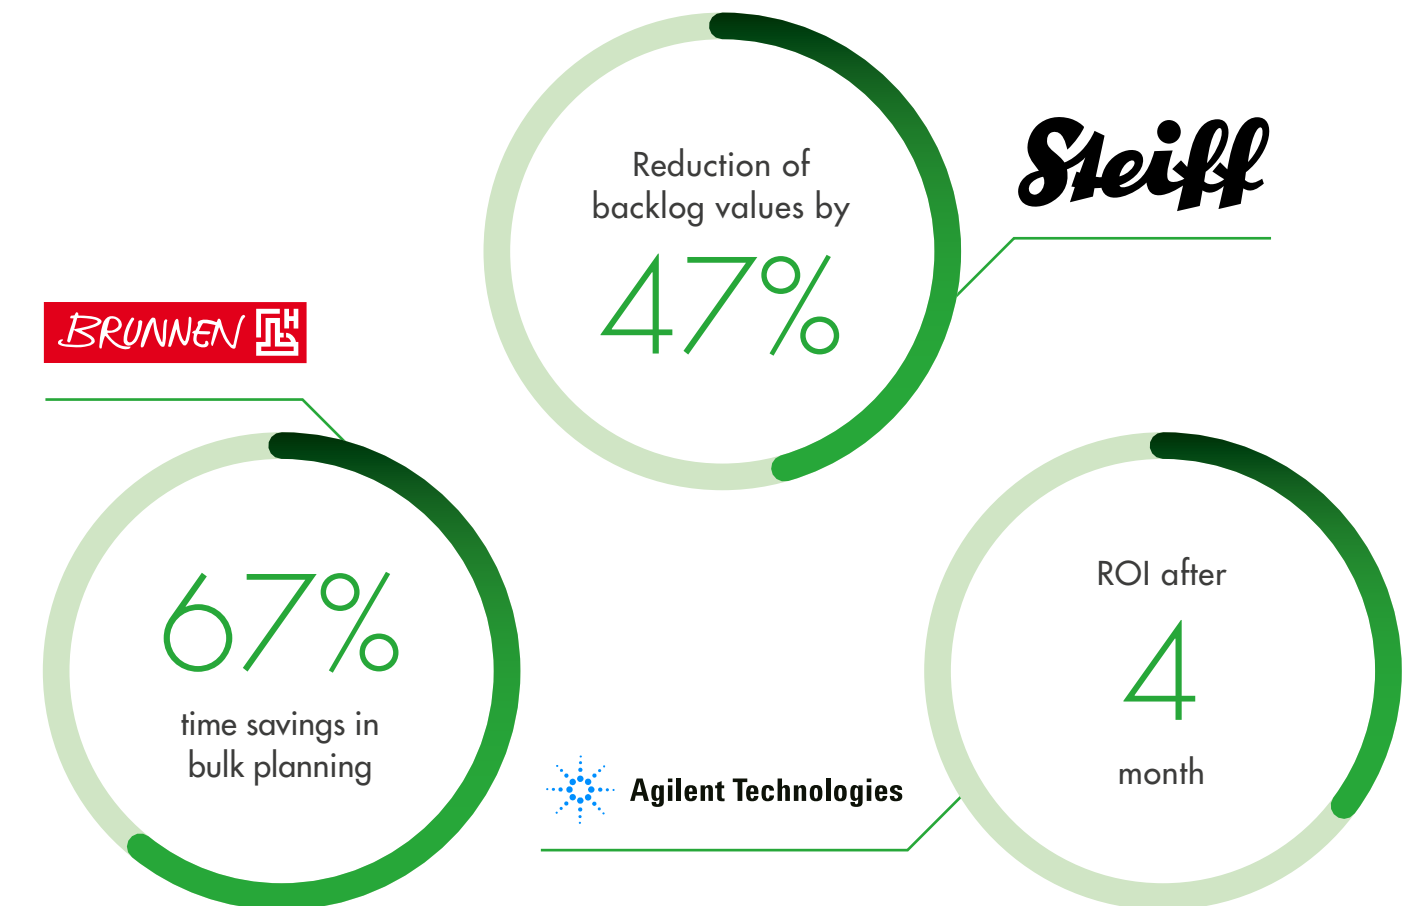

The user navigates through their daily work and can make the right materials-planning decisions with certainty. In the period details displayed in GIB Operations, you can display all relevant information like outflows and entries, requirements, planning orders, etc., in a timeline. This timeline can be laid out by day, week, or month. It can be displayed on the individual material level or for a group of materials.

In addition, the conversion of planning orders and purchase requisitions is initiated directly from a user interface. The inventory key figures, which can vary widely in many companies, can be easily visualized in GIB Operations.

Cross-factory views on the individual material level and structures of bills of materials or parts usage can be called up easily and quickly.

Issues like cross-company or intercompany businesses are thus solved in GIB Operations. Ranges on the level of consumption and requirement, or even customer-specific ranges, can be conveniently adjusted and controlled here with traffic lights and exceptions.
